

Seek is located in the central Cincinnati area (Norwood for Cincinnati natives,) our new, 13,000-square-foot home is designed to inspire and nurture new ideas. It offers three comfortable and stylized creative meeting spaces where you and your team can get out of the blazing glare of your office fluorescent lights, and brainstorm to your heart's content, whether you're working with us or just need to use a conference room for your own team. And there's not a gray cubicle in sight!

All three rentable meeting spaces are totally unique and designed to meet your needs. Our largest room, "Station 22", is located on the 2nd floor and has a warm, open feel with seating for 25-30 team members. Our third-floor space, "Room 1910", has a modern yet rustic vibe and can host 15-20 creative thinkers. Finally, we offer a more modestly-sized space on our first floor, "The Parlor", for those strategy sessions with smaller groups.

Additionally, our space features a large, open deck—for when you need to get a breath of fresh air—and an indoor/outdoor slide, for quick and fun escapes to the ground floor!

As for services, when you have your meeting at our place, it's all included (no nickel-and-diming here!) All meetings in our facility include free copies, templates, materials, Wi-Fi, AV (flat screen TVs, projection, audio), and more. Also included in your cost, we provide an assistant to make sure your meeting goes smoothly. For facilitation and ideation, we'll also include a typist so you have your notes promptly. Plenty of snacks and a variety of beverages are also provided, and high quality, memorable meals that are different every time will be catered at your request.
